¹ Sir Alexander Osbaldeston of Osbaldeston Knt., son of Richard Osbaldeston by Grace, daughter of Alan Singleton, was tenth in descent from Hugh, son of Ailsi de Osbaldeston, living 30th Henry III. He married, 5th Henry VII., Agnes, daughter of Sir Christopher Southworth of Samlesbury Knt., by whom he had (with others) John Osbaldeston his son and heir. He married secondly Ellen, daughter of Thomas Tyldesley of Morley [?] by whom he left a son, Richard Osbaldeston, ancestor of the Osbaldestons of Sunderland in the county of Lancaster, and of Hunmanby in the county of York.—Suffield MSS. Alexander Osbaldeston of Osbaldeston Esq. aged 62 at the Visitation in 1664 (buried at Blackburn 11th February 1670-71) married Anne, daughter of Sir John Talbot of Salesbury Knt. by whom he had Edward Osbaldeston, his son and heir, (buried at Blackburn in 1689) who marrying Jane, daughter of Thomas Braddyll of Braddyll and Portfield Esq., had issue Jane, baptised 7th April 1679, died before 1747; Edward, baptised 10th September 1684; Anne and John, died infants; Thomas, baptised 31st March 1681, buried 25th September 1701, and Alexander Osbaldeston his son and heir, who was baptised at Blackburn 22nd May 1677, and was buried there 6th April 1747, leaving no issue. He was the last lineal heir male of this ancient family. His will was proved at Chester:

In 1778 a George Osbaldeston of Knutsford, weaver, claimed the Osbaldeston estates as heir at law to Alexander Osbaldeston Esq. who died in 1747, but failed in establishing his right. From some law proceedings in this case it appears that in 1743 Allan Harrison Esq. of Lancaster had a mortgage on the estate. By his will, dated 25th April 1752, Mr. Harrison devised the manors of Great Mearley and Osbaldeston, lands in Osbaldeston and Ribchester, &c., in the county of Lancaster, to his daughter Anne Sybele, afterwards wife of George Wilson Esq. In 1774 the Osbaldeston estate passed by sale from George Wilson and Anne Sybele his wife to Sir George Warren of Pointon, and is now in the possession of his representative the Lord de Tabley.

¹ No date of probate. Sir John Radcliffe, son of Sir William Radcliffe of Ordsall Knt. by Margaret, daughter of Sir Edmund Trafford of Trafford, married Anne, daughter and heiress of Thomas Asshawe of the Hall on the Hill Esq., by whom he had (1) Sir Alexander Radcliffe, baptised at the Collegiate Church, Manchester, 2nd January 1573-4, slain in Ireland in 1599. (2) Sir William, slain at Blackwater in Ireland in 1598, fighting against Hugh, Earl of Tyrone. (4) Edmund, and (5) Thomas, both baptised 15th June 1587, and slain in battle in French Flanders in 1599 [the monumental brass states that they died of fever]. Margaret, favourite maid of Queen Elizabeth, died at Richmond of grief at the loss of her two brothers, 10th November 1599. Jane married Sir Ralph Constable; Anne and Alice died young; and Sir John Radcliffe, third son and eventually heir, married Alice, daughter of Sir John Byron of Clayton, by whom he had an only son, Sir Alexander Radcliffe K.B. — Burke's Commoners. Sir Alexander Radcliffe was buried at the Collegiate Church 14th April 1654, and appears to have been the last of the family who resided at Ordsall. The following is Dodsworth's copy (taken in 1640) of the inscription on the monumental brass in Manchester Cathedral, in memory of this family:

THE WILL OF JOHN BRADDYLL OF WHALLEY ESQ.¹

IN the name of God Amen 31 May 1575 I John Braddill of Whalley in the countie of Lancaster esquier holle of mynde &c. My bodye I doe bequeth to chirsten buryall in the north syde

¹ Proved September 1, 1599. John Braddyll, son of Edward Braddyll of Brock-hole, by Jane, daughter of Robert Crombocke of Clerkhill, married Jane, daughter of John Foster of Whalley, by whom he had issue Edward, his son and heir; Richard; Anne, married first John Chew of Parkhead, and secondly Thomas Southworth of Highfield; Cicely, wife of Bernard Blakey Gent; and Jennet, who married Ugtred Morley of Braddyll. — (Corry's Lancashire.) His descendant John Braddyll of Portfield Esq. (ob. 1727-8) married Sarah, daughter and at length sole heiress of Myles Dodding of Conishead Esq., whose representative T. R. G. Braddyll Esq. a few years since disposed of Conishead Priory and other property in Lancashire. This Will corroborates Whitaker's statement that John Braddyll trafficked in the unsafe commodity of abbey lands to a very great amount, so that among the MSS. of his family a whole volume, No. 57, is filled with transcripts of these grants alone. The testator was buried at Whalley November 18, 1578, and his wife is erroneously called by Whitaker Johanna. — Hist. Whalley, p. 244. For some interesting notices of the halls of Braddyll and Portfield see Assheton's Journal (published by the Chetham Society) pp. 14-15, and a notice of the testator in the introd. page iv., and also in the Stanley Papers, part ii. p. 141, notes.

¹ Proved May 12th, 1573. It may be assumed that the testator was a very aged man at his death, as in a letter to the Chancellor, dated Rochdale 1573, the Rev. Richard Midgley, the Vicar, stated that "Alice Hamer of Hamer the relict was unable to travel to the Court at Chester to prove the will, being of the great age of 88 years and encompassed with sondrie infirmities," and therefore the will was sent by her "lovinge friends" James Halliwell of Ealees and James Marland of Marland.—Lanc. MSS. The testator was the head of a family possessed of feudal estates in Hamer in the 14th century which descended to his lineal representative James Hamer Esq., a Justice of the Peace and Deputy Lieutenant for the County of Lancaster, who alienated them in 1809 to John Entwisle of Foxholes Esq. Mr. Hamer died in Liverpool in 1838, leaving male issue surviving. The present large and handsome hall is said to have been re-built about 1750 by Mrs. Hamer, sister of Sir Henry Ibbotson of Denton Park Bart.

THE WILL OF SIR THOMAS LANGTON KNT.
BARON OF NEWTON.¹

IN Dei nomine &c. 4 April 1569 I Thomas Langton of Walton in the Dale in the countie of Lancaster Knighte Baron of New-

¹ Thomas Langton, the testator, was the second son of Ralph Langton, Baron of Newton, and was six years old when his father died at the early age of 29, July 29, 1503, 18th Henry VII. A brother named Richard, three years his senior, was then found to be the heir. Ralph had bequeathed the custody of his children to his wife Joan, the daughter of Sir Christopher Southworth of Samlesbury (erroneously called Elizabeth in the pedigree printed in Baines's History of Lancashire), but the wardship of the heir of a military tenant belonged to the king, and it was by his grant, 13th May 1504, 19th Henry VII., that the widow had custody of the estates held by knight service along with the marriage of the heir. She, on the 11th November 1506, 22nd Henry VII., in consideration of a sum of money, alienated these rights to Sir Edward Stanley, a younger son of the first Earl of Derby, popularly known as the hero of Flodden, and in consequence of his good service there proclaimed in 1514 Lord of Mount-Egell (Monteagle).

Richard Langton dying 16th June 1511, 3rd Henry VIII., Thomas his brother was found to be next heir, and of the age of fourteen years. He became in his turn the ward of Sir Edward Stanley, who married him to his daughter Elizabeth. This lady is by Thomas Tong, Norroy, designated as the "base" daughter of Sir Edward Stanley, but she is not so described in her father's will (proved 1524), in which he names another of his children by that epithet, and according to Collins and Nicolas she was the issue of his second marriage with Anne, daughter and co-heir of Sir John Harrington of Hornby. Her monument in Sepulchre's Church is thus described in Stowe's Survey of London, book iii, chap. xii:—

"A fair stone in the chancel close by one to Lady Eleanor Sentleger.

From this marriage issued

Edward the eldest son, named in Lord Monteagle's will as his godson. He married Anne daughter of Sir Alexander Osbaldeston of Osbaldeston, who survived him and lived as his widow at Lightshay Hall, in the parish of Winwick. Her will was proved 20th April, 1566. They had issue Thomas who died in childhood. Edward was living, as appears by the Preston Guild roll, in 1542 and died before 1558.

Richard who became Rector of Wigan. Not on the Guild roll of 1542.

Thomas and } Named by Tong in the Visitation of 1533, but not by Flower in George } that of 1567.

Anthony and }
Francys } Named by Flower but not by Tong.

Of these four Thomas alone appears on the Guild roll of 1542.

Leonard (called in the Visitation of 1567 the 6th son) who married Anne daughter of Thomas Leyburn of Cunswick in the county of Westmoreland, widow of William Singleton. He was the only one of the sons of Elizabeth Stanley alive in 1558, and he died before the guild of 1562, in his father's lifetime. They had issue Thomas who succeeded his grandfather, 11th Eliz. 1569, being then eight years of age.

Christopher alive 1542, as appears by the Guild Book.

The daughters are named in the following order in an indenture of 4th August, 5th and 6th Philip and Mary (1558), but in the Visitations are differently arranged.

Johan married to John Fleetwood of Penwortham, afterwards of Calwich in the county of Stafford, whose grandson Richard, the first Baronet of that family, succeeded his cousin the last Sir Thomas Langton as heir of entail under the settlement made 5th and 6th Philip and Mary.

Jane married to Richard Fitzherbert of the county of Stafford; alive in 1558.

Anne married to John (a second son of) Bold of Bold, several of whose children are named, along with herself, in their grandfather's will as his "cosyns." 1569.

Mary made betwene me the saide Sir Thomas L. upon th'one partie and the right honorable Sir Thomas Stanley Knighte Lorde Mountea[gle] [the] reverend ffather in God Lorde Thomas Stanley Bisshope of Man and the owte ysles and Wifm fletewodde of the Myddle Temple in London gentelman upon th'other partie amongst other thinges [did] covaunte with the saide Lorde Mounteagle the saide busshoppe and Wifm ff. that at the nexte assises of the countie of Lanc. Mary married first to Thomas Byrom of Byrom, and secondly, after 1558, to Edmund Winstanley of Winstanley, living at Wigan in 1569.

Eleanor married to Edward Cholmondeley of Coppenhall in the county of Salop; alive in 1558.

N.B. A son Roger, not named in the Visitations, was recorded once only on the Preston Guild roll (1542). It is uncertain whether he was the issue of the first or second marriage.

Sir Thomas Langton, after the death of his first wife, married Anne daughter of Thomas Talbot, a younger brother of John Talbot of Salebury, who is distinguished in the pedigree from others of the same name as Long John Talbot. — Harl. MS. No. 1549, fo. 57 and fo. 128. Her brother Richard, who became a citizen of London, was born ante matrimonium. She survived her husband and (23rd April 1572) made her will, which was proved June 1573, the inventory being taken 21st May in the same year (15th Eliz.). Her executors were her "cousyns" John Talbot and William ffarington Esqs. and Alexander Rishton gent. She recites in her will a debt of xx lb. due to her daughter Katheryn, who is also named in the will of Sir Thomas 1569 (11th Eliz.), being then under age.

Edward, recorded in the Harl. MS. No. 1549, p. 57, as her son, but not named in her will, as he is erroneously stated to have been in the note at p. lxxiii, v ol. 31, Chetham Society.

Sir Thomas Langton was Sheriff of Lancashire in 1556, and again in 1567, and died at the age of 72, soon after making his will, an inquisition post mortem being held in the same year, the 11th of Queen Elizabeth (1569) at Wigan.

³ The object of this settlement was to exclude the issue of Sir Thomas Langton's second wife Anne from the inheritance, and this was accomplished by the "diverse other uses" recited in the indenture tripartite of 1558 (5th and 6th Philip and Mary) viz., after the decease of Sir Thomas and the expiry of four years, to the use of Leonard his only surviving son and heir. After Leonard's death and that of his wife, for whom provision was made, to the sole use of their male heirs in succession. In default of such issue then to the first son of the said Sir Thomas Langton Knight, the which after the date of the indenture shall be born in lawful matrimony, and by him begotten of such woman as Sir Thomas Langton may marry, and to the heirs male of such first son, so that the same should not be begotten of the body of "Anne Talbot alias Slater, and now commonly called the Lady Anne Langton, wife of the said Sir Thomas Langton Knight;" and in default to second and other sons and their heirs male in succession. In default of such issue to the use of William Langton, brother of the said Sir Thomas Langton for life. Then to the use of Johan, daughter of Sir Thomas Langton and wife of John Fleetwood for life, and to her sons and their male heirs in succession. daughter, Mary Byrom, and her male issue; then to Ellinor Cholmondley and her male issue. In default to Sir Thomas Langton's brother William, and his heirs male; remainder to the right heirs of Sir Thomas Langton. Power reserved to settle a jointure upon any future wife of Sir Thomas Langton. It was proved by the inquisition post mortem 6th James I. on the death of the last Sir Thomas Langton that the first Sir Thomas had no legitimate issue born after the date of this deed, that his brother William was dead as well as his daughter Johan and her eldest son, and that the inheritance devolved upon Richard Fleetwood, her grandson, by virtue of this entail.

It is altogether a very singular document, and so evidently thought the jurors at the inquisition post mortem, who suspected it to be fraudulent in its intention ("made by covin"). At the date of its execution Leonard's son was not born, so that the interest of Fleetwood's children in the settlement appeared to be a very near one, and it is curious to find that Thomas, Richard and Ralf his sons were named in the deed "Fleetwood alias Langton." The parties to the indenture were the brother of Sir Thomas Langton's first wife, his namesake the Bishop of Man and Rector of Wigan, and a nephew of John Fleetwood, an astute lawyer, who became Recorder of the City of London. It may also be inferred that it was hereby attempted to deprive the second wife of her dower, since she did not recover it without resort to process of law. In this she was successful, and to judge by the extent of her inventory taken for probate must have lived in good style.

¹ The finding of the inquisition held at Wigan shortly after the death of Sir Thomas Langton, 11th Eliz., was that Leonard Langton in his life had issue male, viz., Thomas Langton, "solum et primum filium suum," by Anne his wife, and after that Leonard in the lifetime of his father died. The original inquisition being mutilated it is from Kuerden's abstract in the Chetham Library that we find Thomas to have been eight years of age at the death of his grandfather. He was contracted in his nonage to Margaret daughter of Richard Sherburne of Stonyhurst, from whom he was divorced by sentence of the Consistory at York, 25th June, 1580, on the ground that the marriage was made "in impubertate dieti Thomæ nec pubertate adveniente per ipsum Thomam ratificatum sed potius idem matrimonium reclamantem." He married the same year, being then nineteen, Elizabeth second daughter of Sir John Savage of Clifton, in the county of Chester, who was born in 1552, and was therefore nine years his senior (Sir P. Lyecester, History of Chester.) In the year 1589 (32nd Eliz.) he was concerned in a fatal affray at Lea Hall when Mr. Hoghton was slain, and it is supposed that he made his peace with that family by ceding to them his Manor of Walton-in-le-dale.

He was sworn a Burgess of Preston at the Guild Merchant of 1602. He was a Knight of the Bath at the coronation of James the First, and died 20th February, 1604, without issue, when Richard Fleetwood, eldest son of Thomas Fleetwood his cousin succeeded as heir of entail. Dodsworth preserves a record of the following tablet originally placed in Wigan church but which had been removed to Duxbury Hall.

"To oblivion.

"And y^e due bones of Sir Tho^s Langton of y^e Hon^{ble} order of y^e Bathe Knt. In the inquisition taken four years after his death, that event is said to have taken place at Newton.

² Of Edward, the younger son of Sir Thomas Langton, little is known. Beside the bequest made to him by his father we find in the inquisition post mortem 11th Eliz. that 20th March 1st Mary (1554), Sir Thomas Langton granted by charter to John Atherton Knight, John Osbaldiston, John Talbot, John Kecheyn a certain annuity or yearly rent of £10 0s. 1d. to be received and taken from messuages and tenements in Walton, to have and to hold to the use of "Edwardi Langton filii junioris prefati Thome Langton militis" for life.

A further provision was made for Edward by charter, dated 31st March 11th Elizabeth 1569, in which John Woodcock of Walton-in-le-Dale and George Eastham of the same place, yeoman, were enfeoffed of messuages, lands and hereditaments in Bretherton, in Preston, Walton, Cuerden, Billington, Lawton, Newton, &c., to secure an annuity of xx^{li}, "ad opus et usum Edwardi Langton filii sui predicti Thome Langton militis."

After Sir Thomas Langton's death the jurors find that Edward was living in Preston, and they stated his age, but at this point the inquisition is mutilated, and Kuerden's abstract (where we find the age of the heir) does not give that of Edward. He was recorded at the Preston Guild of 1562 after the name of Sir Thomas Langton as "filius ejus." In the 12th Elizabeth (1569-70) Anne, widow of Sir Thomas Langton, brought against him a writ of dower, and recovered against him her thirds, upon which he had entered.

At the Guild of 1582 he was recorded as "filius Thome Langton militis defuncti," and was alive 28th Elizabeth 1585-6, when he sued Adam Bushell, who occupied the lands in Cuerden settled upon him by his father, and who had got possession of the title deeds.

The surmise that Edward, being the son of Anne Talbot, might also be the same as Edward the father of Roger Langton, afterwards of Broughton Tower, who was sworn stattinger at the Preston Guild of 1582, derives some support from the circumstance of Roger's eldest son, William taking a Talbot as his crest at the hands of Wm. Ryley, Norroy in 1657; but proofs of Edward's age, marriage, and death are
